A. NOTICE TO THE PROPOSED INSURED

1. Disclosure of Relevant Facts

Your Duty of Disclosure

You must be aware of the duty of disclosure in relation to your insurance and the severe consequences of a breach

Insurance contracts are contracts of good faith. This requires you, as buyer of insurance, to disclose all information which is known to you (or which ought to be known to you) in the ordinary course of business and which is material to the risk. Material information are information which a prudent insurer would wish to take into account when considering whether or not to insure the risk at all and, if so, upon what terms and at what price. Material information does not necessarily have to actually increase the risk of the insurance under consideration.

In completing an application form or claim form or questionnaire; and in providing information to or for insurers, the accuracy and completeness of all answers, statements, declarations and/or information is your responsibility and it is of paramount importance that all relevant information is provided and that it is accurate. If you become aware that information that you have supplied before the insurance was finalised was incorrect or has been omitted, you should inform us immediately.

In the event that there is a breach of the duty of disclosure, such as information provided was incorrect or that information was not provided at all, the insurer has the right to cancel the insurance from its commencement. This means the insurer would be entitled to refuse to pay any claims reported and to recover from you any claims already paid under the policy. Although at the same time the insurer would generally be obliged to return paid premium (in the absence of dishonest conduct).

Examples of material information (not exhaustive) which must be disclosed are:

- Any previous complaints or claims with full details
- Any change in professional services

If you are in any doubt as to the ambit of the duty of disclosure or whether a piece of information ought to be disclosed, please do not hesitate to contact us.

1. Claims Made Policy

This Proposal Form is for a "claims made" policy of insurance. This means that the policy covers you for claims made against you and notified to the insurer during the period of insurance. This policy does not provide cover in relation to:

- events that occurred prior to the retroactive date of the policy (if such a date is specified);
- claims made after the expiry of the period of insurance even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the period of insurance;
- claims notified or arising out of facts or circumstances notified (or which ought reasonably to have been notified) under any previous policy;
- claims made, threatened or intimated against you prior to the commencement of the period of insurance;
- facts or circumstances of which you first became aware prior to the period of insurance, and which you knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a claim under this policy;
- claims arising out of circumstances noted on the Proposal Form for the current period of insurance or on any previous Proposal Form.

However, where you give notice in writing to the insurer of any facts that might give rise to a claim against you as soon as reasonably practicable after you become aware of those facts but before the expiry of the period of insurance, the policy will, subject to the terms and conditions, cover you notwithstanding that a claim is only made after the expiry of the period of insurance.

You should familiarise yourself with our standard form of policy for this type of cover before submitting this Proposal Form.

2. Basis of the Insurance Contract

This Proposal Form shall be the basis of the insurance contract should a Policy be issued.

Answers are required for each question in this Proposal Form. Proposal Form containing unanswered questions or blank answers will not be accepted.

If there is not enough space on this Proposal Form to complete any of your answers, please continue them on another piece of paper then attach the paper to this Proposal Form.
