The Role of Allied Healthcare Professionals in Community-based Healthcare Symposium

11 OCT
SATURDAY
1430 - 1730

F0201,
Jockey Club Grand Theatre,
Hong Kong Metropolitan University
1 Sheung Shing Street,
Ho Man Tin, Kowloon

FREE ADMISSION!

Speakers' Bio

DR. KEN WAN

- Teaching Fellow, School of Optometry, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
- Award recipient of HKAPPO Community Service Award, HKAPPO Best Community Project Award and Reaching Out Award
- PhD in Optometry focusing on the anterior segment of the eye and orthokeratology

MR. GEORGE WONG

- Vice-President (Internal Affair) of Hong Kong Physiotherapist's Union
- Project Director of The Hong Kong Society for Rehabilitation Jockey Club Geriatric Rejuvenation Hub
- MSc in Clinical Gerontology, over 25 years of all-rounded clinical practice in different settings

MISS MELINDA CHOI

- Vice President (Professional Standard) & Faculty Director of Mammography, HK College of Radiographers & Radiation Therapists
- MSc in Health Science & Graduate Certificate in Breast Imaging (Australia); postgraduate level in interpretation and reporting in Mammography (UK)
- Invited lecturer for Breast Imaging subjects in the Chinese University of HK and the HK Polytechnic University