

Ms. Tang Lok Man Toby, is a highly experienced physiotherapist with over 20 years of dedicated service in Hong Kong's healthcare sector.

She holds a Bachelor of Science (Hon) in Physiotherapy from The Hong Kong Polytechnic University. She has pursued postgraduate training in epidemiology, biostatistics, and clinical gerontology at The Chinese University of Hong Kong, as well as advanced studies in manipulative physiotherapy at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

Throughout her clinical career, Toby has contributed significantly to adult intensive care, early rehabilitation, and burns management at major hospitals.